

If you allow broadcast groups, such as Sinclair, to manipulate and influence public opinion during an important election year, you sirs, are complicit in the degradation of the democratic system that is supposed to exist in this country.

I urge you to pay attention and to exercise your responsibility to the integrity of the Commission under your care.

DSalopek